Use of brand names by multinational companies

3220. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the multinational companies are adopting a strategy gradually dropping the Indian prefix to the Indian manufactured products thereby pushing their Indian partners to a secondary status and losing out the competitive advantage in the global economy;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof stating the implications of the multinationals move;

(c) whether Government propose to formulate a comprehensive policy to safeguard the interests of the private sector in building up its global presence for their brand names; and

(d) if so, the steps taken by Government in this direction?

12—106 RSS/ND/94.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT) WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF HEAVY INDUSTRY) (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) and (b) With the removal of the restrictions on the use of purely foreign brand names/trade marks on goods for internal sales, it is purely a matter of contractual arrangement between multinational companies and the Indian collaborator to use whichever trade mark/brand name the parties agree upon.

(c) and (d) The Government has already introduced a comprehensive bill titled as "Trade Marks Bill, 1993," to replace the existing legislation on the subject. The Bill inter alia seeks to provide for registration and better protection of trade marks for goods and services and for the prevention of use of fraudulent marks by enhancing punishment for trade mark offences, and thereby safeguarding consumer protection.
